MORRISON FAMILY HISTORY

Having previously owned two of Scotland's oldest distilleries, Bowmore and Glen Garioch, and more recently Auchentoshan, Tim Morrison is now the driving force behind one of Scotland's newest distilleries.

For many years, he has had a vision of reviving distilling in Glasgow, following in the footsteps of his father, Stanley P. Morrison.

WHISKY'S IN GLASGOW'S BLOOD

Glasgow was at the centre of the industry at one period. Once home to countless

- distilleries,
- blending houses,
- bonded warehouses,
- bottling plants,
- cooperages,

We celebrate the significant role that whisky has played in shaping both our city and Scotland as a whole, while also putting Glasgow right back on the Scotch whisky map.
